

Wedding party booking form

Stourhead wedding photography

In return for the National Trust (Enterprises) Limited granting me permission to take photographs of my wedding party at the following National Trust property on the following date:

National Trust property: Stourhead

Date and Time of wedding:.....

I agree:-

- (a) to ensure that only photographs of my wedding party are taken and that no additional photographs or other images are taken of any National Trust property (except as specifically agreed with the relevant National Trust staff)
- (b) to ensure that my wedding party behave appropriately while at the National Trust property, do not cause disruption to other visitors at the National Trust property, follow the reasonable directions of National Trust staff, and leave the National Trust property in the same condition as it was found
- (c) to ensure that my wedding party will only access those parts of the National Trust property as are agreed with the relevant National Trust staff
- (d) to ensure that my photographer signs the "Photographer Permission Form – Wedding Photography" provided and submits the same to a member of the National Trust property staff before any photographs are taken
- (e) to ensure that only the bride, groom and photographer access the garden free of charge to take wedding photographs from the path area.
- (f) to pay the daily property admission price for additional guests who are unable to present a valid membership card to access to garden for photographs. This fee must be paid on the day itself.
- (g) to not access the Palladian Bridge for photographs unless previously agreed and paid for with relevant National Trust staff.
